The Weather.

FOR KENTUCKY—Fair Thursday. Not much change in temperature.

The Mayfield Mirror office was partly destroyed by fire of mysterious origin last week. The loss was covered by insurance.

Rev. Francis B. Converse, editor of the Christian Observer, of Louisville, an organ of the Presbyterian church, died suddenly Monday, aged 71 years.

Miss Onie Mathews, of Webster county, caught the Meazles last week. That is to-day she was married to a young man named Marshall Meazles.

The Singer building now under construction in New York will be the highest commercial building in the world. It is 41 stories high, as compared with other sky-scrapers 21 to 26 stories in height.

The Tennessee Supreme Court has declared the Pendleton law constitutional. After November 1 there will be no saloons in Tennessee except in the cities of Memphis, Nashville, Chattanooga and La Follette.

This compliment is from the Madisonville Hustler, to Owsley Stanley from a county that gave 2800 majority against him the first time he ran for the Democratic nomination for congress:

"Congressman A. O. Stanley, of Henderson, came in Friday night with the party accompanying President John Mitchell. Mr. Stanley is very popular in Madisonville and the people commenced to shout at him as soon as his Stetson hat appeared in the car door. Under that same hat is a magnificent brain—active, alert and teeming with modern ideas."

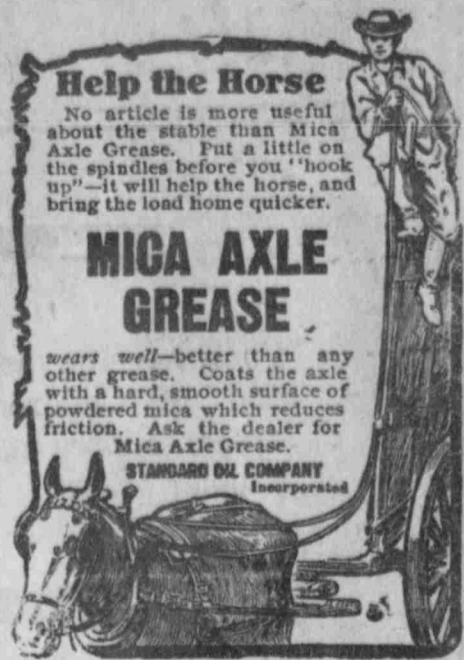

A dispatch from Columbia, Tenn. says that Hon. Edward W. Carmack, who recently was defeated for reelection to United States Senate by Gov. Robert L. Taylor, has announced himself a candidate for Governor of Tennessee against Malcolm R. Patterson, the incumbent. Mr. Carmack's announcement is brief but to the point. He favors a general primary. Carmack and Taylor have resumed friendly relations and it by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure, send for circulars free.

is believed they have formed a combination to put Patterson out of business and eventually return Carmack to the Senate to succeed Frazier.

Markbreit, the Republican candidate for Mayor of Cincinnati, has come out squarely for a wide open town on Sunday in these words:

"I should be in favor of front doors being closed on Sunday. Those, however, who wish to be in saloons, so long as order is preserved, should enjoy that privilege. I should not close orderly saloons at midnight. Any violation of the laws of decency would not be brooked. Low dives would not be permitted to run. I would not tolerate gambling in gambling houses. If it were done at people's residences I could not consider it any of my business as Mayor. I am in favor of wholesome amusements and good theatricals on Sundays. I should favor, in a word, Sunday amusements."

"The Seminary Girl."

Among the season's most pretentious offerings for public favor great claims are made for Melville B. Raymond's production of "The Seminary Girl," and all the reports concerning it bear out the claims of genuine novelty, brilliancy of creation and elaborate beauty. The story deals in operatic form with the adventures of the college girl and her lover, a stern Daddy and others who interfere or help along, this, the oldest story in the world. An aimless and harmless lunatic helps along the fun just when most needed to liven affairs. Daffy Dan is a new character to the stage and is in the hands of a capable comedian. This musical organization will be at Holland's Opera House Friday night, Oct. 4.
